Leading ordinary people to extraordinary lives with Jesus

January 2019

Emotionally Healthy Spirituality - New Class begins Sunday, January 6th – 9:15am

Led by Roger Hershberger - Room 18. Pete Scazzerro’s book Emotionally Healthy Spirituality will guide us to leave a superficial, shallow spirituality, open up our interior world so Christ can transform it, and develop our own personal relationship with Jesus in a safe, comfortable environment that respects each person’s journey.

We will review Pete Scazzerro’s top 10 symptoms of “emotionally unhealthy spirituality” and how they play out in our lives both at home and church. Then we’ll look at the transformative, biblical, reality-tested pathway to break through to the life Christ meant for you. Class discussion will be encouraged. Class start Sunday morning, Jan. 6th. Cost for books is $20 but please don’t let the cost keep you from participating.

Distinctive Teachings of the Church of God

Learn what teachings make the Church of God who it is. As a part of the Church of God, LifePoint Church is influenced by these beliefs. The Church of God is somewhat unique in the way that many commonly held theological ideas are brought together. This will be an opportunity to be enriched by these teachings and reflect on your own theological beliefs. This class will be taught by Louanne Gressman-Dunn. This class will meet during January and February.

Starting Point Lunch

Sunday, January 13. We’d like to introduce LifePoint Church to anyone new to the church at a short lunch after service. We’ll take some time to explain our vision, how you can get involved, and have time for questions. We’ll be finished by 1:15 pm. If you would like to join us that day, please contact the church office at 574-533-1191.
